When asked whether he would uphold Wisconsin's 1849 abortion ban, he stated, "I will decide that question based on the law to the extent it is consistent with our Constitution... You apply the law to the extent that it's consistent with the constitution and you leave your personal preferences on the sidelines."

When asked about her view on abortion, she stated "I can't tell you where I'll end up on any case. I can tell you a little bit about my values... [I]'t's no secret what my values are in regards to Roe v. Wade, in regards to the Dobbs case. My values are that women should be able to make their reproductive life decisions themselves."
